

COMPLIANCE WITH CIVIL RIGHTS ACT LEGISLATION

The Vocational Rehabilitation Program for eligible citizens with disabilities, administered by the Pennsylvania Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, is conducted in such a manner that no person in the United States will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under this program because of age, sex, race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, or physical and/or mental disability.

If, as a Vocational Rehabilitation customer or potential customer, you feel that your rights have been denied you on the basis of your age, sex, race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, or physical and/or mental disability, you should file your complaint with:
