BULLETIN NO. 20-22

October 2020

SPECIAL EDITION

Product Expiration Dates for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Effective September 30, 2020, the following products' expiration dates were extended for Pennsylvania residents in response to statewide COVID-19 mitigation efforts:

- The expiration date for a commercial learner's permit scheduled to expire from March 16, 2020, through November 29, 2020, was extended through November 29, 2020.
- The expiration date for commercial driver licenses scheduled to expire from March 16, 2020, through November 29, 2020, was extended through November 29, 2020.
- The expiration date of a Hazardous Materials Endorsement (HME) for an individual who is a Pennsylvania-licensed commercial driver's license holder and who held a valid, unexpired HME with a determination of no security threat on or after March 6, 2020, was extended until October 29, 2020.

Expiration extension deadlines on non-commercial driver license, photo identification cards, learner's permits and camera cards expired on August 31.
