Nursing Home Administrators Board - Military Occupational Crosswalk

Licensed Occupations: Nursing Home Administrator

Air	Force
Δ II	TULCE

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

• Health Services Administrator (41A1A; 41A1; 41A3A; 41A4; 41A4A; 41A4; 41AXA; 41AX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 2

Army

Related Occupations: (Military Occupation Code):

• Health Care Administer (70A) [Officer] Page 3 • Health Services Administration (70B) [Officer] Page 4 Patient Administration (70E) [Officer]

Page 5

Coast Guard

Related Occupations: (Military Occupation Code):

• Health Services – General (90) [Officer]

Page 6

Marines

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

No related occupations

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

• Health Care Administrator (0800) [Officer]

Page 7

Nursing Home Administrator

	I
Experience/	Experience & Education Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Requirement	Be at least 21 years of age
	 Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
	Administration Course
	Meet education and experience requirements:
	1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration.
	2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements.
	3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level.
	4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health
	administration, or an academic area where there is
	an emphasis in related health facility administration,
	they are exempt from the 120-hour course.
	In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt)
	from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience:
	A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour
	Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6
	months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.
	B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT
	program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5
	years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home
	with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing
	home administration; or 9 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home.
	_
	C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3
	years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
	service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
	D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license:
	6 months as a full-time director of nursing
	immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000
	hours of service in the practice of nursing home
	administration.
	E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
	service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
Examination	2 Examinations
Requirement	An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections:
	Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE)
	and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA).
	The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam
	(Pennsylvania NHA).
Profession	Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,
definition	organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home.

Air Force
Health Services Administrator (41A1A; 41A1; 41A3A; 41A3; 41A4A; 41A4; 41AXA; 41AX) [Commissioned Officer]

Education/ Training	 Coordinate health service programs with federal agencies to execute health services programs Formulate, interpret, and implement policy associated with both peace and wartime Monitor and direct health service programs covering a wide array of manage Undergraduate or Graduate degree in: Health Administration, Healthcare Administration, Health Management and Policy, Health Services Administration, Hospital Administration, Accounting, Business Administration, Business Management, Economics, Finance, Marketing, Statistics, Information Systems Management, Business Analytics, Architecture, Architectural Engineering, Civil Engineering, Construction Management Undergraduate: Biomedical Engineering, Clinical Engineering and Health Management/Health Systems Engineering, Operations Research, or
Qualifications	 Desired GPA of 3.0 or above Minimum score of 292 on the GRE or 500 on the GMAT, taken within the last five years Completion of the six-week Health Services Administration Course
Related Credentials Offered	 Home Care Clinical Specialist – OASIS (HCS-O) Home Care Coding Specialist – Hospice (HCS-H) Electronic Health Record Certification (EHRC) Certified in Healthcare Human Resources Certified Healthcare Protection Administrator (CHPA)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	Some of the degrees listed for these positions may assist the servicemember in being exempt from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.

Nursing Home Administrators Board Nursing Home Administrator

Experience/	Experience & E	ducation Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Requirement	Be at	least 21 years of age
-		olete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
		nistration Course
		education and experience requirements:
		Applicants are required to have experience in
		nursing home administration.
	-	2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements.
	3	3. The specific type and amount of experience depends
	`	on the applicant's education level.
	2	4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their
		MS is in hospital administration, public health
		administration, or an academic area where there is
		an emphasis in related health facility administration,
		-
	• In ode	they are exempt from the 120-hour course.
		dition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt the course by education), an applicant must have one of llowing forms of experience:
	1	A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour
		Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6
	,	months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.
	1	3. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT
		program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5
		years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home
		with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing
		home administration; or 9 months as a full-time
		assistant administrator in a nursing home.
	(C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3
		years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
		service in the practice of nursing home
		administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	_	administrator in a nursing home.
]	D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license:
		6 months as a full-time director of nursing
		immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time
		assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years
		(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000
		hours of service in the practice of nursing home
		administration.
]]	E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
		(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
		service in the practice of nursing home
		administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
		administrator in a nursing home.
Examination	2 Examination	s
Requirement		ust pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections:
		edge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE)
		f Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA).
	The applicant n	nust also pass the State Based Licensing Exam
	(Pennsylvania N	NHA).
Profession		nsed by the state board who engage in the planning,
definition	organizing, dire	cting and control of the operation of a nursing home

Army Health Care Administer (70A) [Officer]

Job Duties	 Coordinate care delivered by the health 	care consortium
	 Advises commanders on health care de 	livery and the management of health care facilities	S
	 Establishes and implements policies/pro 	ocedures
	affecting the U.S. Army Health Care Sy	ystem
	 Responsible for providing administrative 	ve services to the Army's health care facilities.
Education/	Bachelor's degree in health care manag	gement or
Training	related field
	 Minimum of 3 years' experience in a fi 	xed
	medical/dental facility or field activity
	 Job training for medical service corps of 	officers
	includes completing an Officer Basic L	eadership
	Course
	 Training includes:
	 Army Health Care system, Arm 	my doctrine
	and basic soldier/leader skills
Qualifications	Ability to make accurate, immediate de	cisions
	 Perform under stress
	 Apply critical technical and thinking sk 	ills
	Tremendous concentration
D.I.4. J	G iff ID C i I I II I I
Related	Certified Professional in Healthcare Ris	sk
Credentials Offered	Management
Offered	Certified in Healthcare Human Resource	ces
	Certified Medical Manager
	 Certified Healthcare Access Manager
	Fellow of the Healthcare Financial Man	nagement
	Association (FHFMA)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	It is possible that the education required for this position may exempt an applicant from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.

Nursing Home Administrators Board Nursing Home Administrator

Home Administrator Examinations: Be at least 21 years of age Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home Administration Course Meet education and experience requirements: 1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's is hospital administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administration in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time suspervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 ho	Experience/	Experience & Education Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home Administration Course Meet education and experience requirements: 1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's backlor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with a MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a unising home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study; 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study; 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with 2 years of college level study; 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time	Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home Administration Course Meet education and experience requirements: 1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's ducation level. 4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administratior; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administratior; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study; 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-	Requirement	Be at least 21 years of age
Administration Course Meet education and experience requirements: 1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's backelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with and MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time freetor of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time threetor of nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or		 Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's backelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000
1. Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's backelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000		 Meet education and experience requirements:
nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, politic health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a MS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration; or 18 months (an ursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time director of nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in t
2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements. 3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's education, public health administration, or on their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with a MS: An 800-hour ATM program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a MS: A 1000-hour ATM program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Admin
3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time administrator in a nursing home administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home administrator in a nursing home. Examination E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration. Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of S on the applicant's education level. 4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a PS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time administration. The program of the practice of nursing home administration or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.		requirements.
4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administration in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home: or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of service in the practice of nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration: E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Lin degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; o administration, or an academic area where there is an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. • In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administratior; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing home. E. Man applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term		degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their an emphasis in related health facility administration, they are exempt from the 120-hour course. In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administration in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing home; or 12 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement Ozerom the practice of nursing home administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrator
In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administratior; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a sull-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administrator; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the St from the course by education), an applicant must have one of the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administratior in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing inmediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
the following forms of experience: A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement In a publicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administrator; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement C Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administratior; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administratior; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).		A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour
B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administrator; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administratior in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).		Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (WHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administration in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
home administration; or 9 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
assistant administrator in a nursing home. C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations Requirement Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA).
supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, administrator in a nursing home. D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license: 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, 6 months as a full-time director of nursing immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, administration. E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement 2 Examinations An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,
E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, service in the practice of nursing home administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home. Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, Examination Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,
Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,		administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
Requirement An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections: Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,		administrator in a nursing home.
Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,	Examination	2 Examinations
and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,	Requirement
The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, (Pennsylvania NHA). Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, Profession Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, D 4 .
definition organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home
	aerinition	organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home

Army Health Services Administration (70B) [Officer]

Job Duties	Plan, coordinate and monitor the treatment of our patients Advise unit commanders/staff in medical/nonmedical areas of patient evacuation, treatment, and tracking Practice preventive medicine, organize administration, supply equipment, train staff and maintain equipment
	Responsible for ensuring the Army's health care facilities run efficiently.
Education/	Bachelor's degree in healthcare management or
Training	related field
	Job training for medical service corps officers
	includes completing an Officer Basic Leadership
	Course
	Training includes:
	 Army Health Care system, Army doctrine
	and basic soldier/leader skills
Qualifications	 Ability to make accurate, immediate decisions
	Perform under stress
	 Apply critical technical and thinking skills
	Tremendous concentration
Related	Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk
Credentials	Management
Offered	Certified in Healthcare Human Resources
	Certified Medical Manager
	Certified Healthcare Access Manager
	Fellow of the Healthcare Financial Management 1
	Association (FHFMA)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	It is possible that the education required for this position may exempt an applicant from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.

Nursing Home Administrator

Experience/	Experience & Education Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Requirement	Be at least 21 years of age
	Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
	Administration Course
	Meet education and experience requirements:
	Applicants are required to have experience in nursing home administration. 2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements.
	3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level.
	4. If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health
	administration, or an academic area where there is
	an emphasis in related health facility administration,
	they are exempt from the 120-hour course.
	In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt)
	from the course by education), an applicant must have one of
	the following forms of experience:
	A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6 months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.
	B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT
	program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5
	years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home
	with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing
	home administration; or 9 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home.
	C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3
	years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
	service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
	D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license:
	6 months as a full-time director of nursing
	immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home administration.
	E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
	service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
Examination	2 Examinations
Requirement	An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections:
	Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE)
	and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA).
	The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam
D C	(Pennsylvania NHA).
Profession definition	Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,
definition	organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home.

ArmyPatient Administration (70E) [Officer]

Job Duties	 Advises commanders and staff in all aspects of patient administration Plans, organizes, directs, and controls patient administration in a variety of health care agencies Collects and analyzes patient and institutional data Assists medical staff in evaluating quality of patient care and in developing criteria and methods for such an evaluation Advises the medical commander on issues pertaining to patient administration, third party collection programs, clinical informatics, and patient movement, Serves as an advisor on matters pertaining to health services facility management, organization, operation, professional staff functions, and the standards prescribed by the Joint Commission for Accreditation of Health Care Organizations
Education/ Training	 Master's degree Job training for medical service corps officers includes completing an Officer Basic Leadership Course Training includes: Army Health Care system, Army doctrine and basic soldier/leader skills
Qualifications	 Ability to make accurate, immediate decisions Perform under stress Apply critical technical and thinking skills Tremendous concentration
Related Credentials Offered	 Certified Patient Care Technician/Assistant (CPCT/A) National Certified Patient Care Technician (NCPCT) Patient Care Technician Certification (PCTC)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	It is possible that the education required for this position may exempt an applicant from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.

Nursing Home Administrator

Experience/	Experience & Edu	cation Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Requirement	Be at least 21 years of age
	-	e an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
		tration Course
		ucation and experience requirements:
	1.	Applicants are required to have experience in
	2	nursing home administration.
	2.	There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements.
	3.	The specific type and amount of experience depends
	5.	on the applicant's education level.
	4.	If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their MS is in hospital administration, public health
		administration, or an academic area where there is
		an emphasis in related health facility administration,
	. In additi	they are exempt from the 120-hour course.
		on to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt course by education), an applicant must have one of wing forms of experience:
	A.	An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour
	11.	Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6
		months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.
	B.	An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT
		program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5
		years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home
		with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing
		home administration; or 9 months as a full-time
		assistant administrator in a nursing home.
	C.	An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3
		years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
		service in the practice of nursing home
		administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	ъ	administrator in a nursing home.
	D.	An applicant with a currently renewed RN license:
		6 months as a full-time director of nursing
		immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years
		(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000
		hours of service in the practice of nursing home
		administration.
	E.	An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
		(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
		supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
		service in the practice of nursing home
		administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
		administrator in a nursing home.
Examination	2 Examinations
Requirement		pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections:
		e Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE) ervice Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA). t also pass the State Based Licensing Exam (Pennsylvania NH
Profession	Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning, definition		ng and control of the operation of a nursing home

Coast Guard

Health Services – General (90) [Officer]

Education/ Training	 Plan, organize, and direct patient administration in a variety of healthcare settings, including headquarters, health services facilities, clinical support divisions, and departments of a military medical/dental facility Collect and analyze patient and institutional data Assist medical staff in evaluating quality of patient care and in developing criteria and methods for such an evaluation Review organization activities and recommend changes in, or better utilization of, facilities, services, and staff Direct the preparation of biometric reports, directives, correspondence, and memoranda pertaining to health services administration Prepare and exercise emergency, disaster, and defense plans Integrate cost management, quality, and access to care issues into health services programs Direct hospital accreditation program and management improvement studies Degree in medical administration Job-specific training content may include: Planning and directing health services management improvement studies Degree in medical administration Job-specific training content may include:
Qualifications	 Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely Interest in healthcare Interest in heatincare Interest in planning and directing the work of othersInterest in working closely with people
Related	Certified in Infection Control (CIC)
Credentials	Primary Certification in Public Health/Community
Offered	MedicineCertified Safety and Health Manager (CSHM)
	Certified Safety and Health Manager (CSHM) Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management (CPHRM)
	Certified in Public Health (CPH)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	It is possible that the education required for this position may exempt an applicant from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.

Nursing Home Administrator

Experience/	Experience & Education Requirements for admission to the Nursing
Education	Home Administrator Examinations:
Requirement	Be at least 21 years of age
	 Complete an approved 120-hour Nursing Home
	Administration Course
	 Meet education and experience requirements:
	 Applicants are required to have experience in
	nursing home administration.
	2. There are a variety of experience that meet the requirements.
	3. The specific type and amount of experience depends on the applicant's education level.
	 If an applicant's bachelor's degree (BS) or master's degree (MS) is in healthcare administration, or their
	MS is in hospital administration, public health
	administration, or an academic area where there is
	an emphasis in related health facility administration,
	they are exempt from the 120-hour course.
	In addition to the exams and 120-hour course (unless exempt)
	from the course by education), an applicant must have one of
	the following forms of experience:
	A. An applicant with an MS: An 800-hour
	Administrator in Training (AIT) program; or 6
	months as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home.
	B. An applicant with a BS: A 1000-hour AIT
	program; or 18 months (within the most recent 5
	years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home
	with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing
	home administration; or 9 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home.
	C. An applicant with 2 years of college level study: 3
	years (within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of
	service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
	D. An applicant with a currently renewed RN license:
	6 months as a full-time director of nursing
	immediately followed by 12 months as a full-time
	assistant administrator in a nursing home; or 2 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time
	director of nursing in a nursing home with 1000
	hours of service in the practice of nursing home
	administration.
	E. An applicant with a high school diploma: 3 years
	(within the most recent 5 years) as a full-time supervisor in a nursing home with 1000 hours of service in the practice of nursing home
	administration; or 18 months as a full-time assistant
	administrator in a nursing home.
Examination	2 Examinations
Requirement	An applicant must pass the National Exam, which contains 2 sections:
1	Core of Knowledge Exam for Long Term Care Administrators (CORE)
	and The Line of Service Exam - Nursing Home Administrators (NHA).
	The applicant must also pass the State Based Licensing Exam
	(Pennsylvania NHA).
Profession	Individuals licensed by the state board who engage in the planning,
definition	organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home

Navy Health Care Administrator (0800) [Officer]

Job Duties	 Evaluate medical and humanitarian needs after an earthquake or a natural disaster Oversee proper construction of a new hospital at home or abroad Manage the budget of a department, division, or an entire facility Make recommendations on how to continue delivering quality health care in cost-effective ways Evaluate the training needs of personnel and make recommendations
Education/ Training	 Upon completing graduate school, those pursuing a Health Care Administrator position are required to attend Officer Development School (ODS) in Newport, R.I. ODS is a five-week program that provides a comprehensive and intense introduction to the responsibilities of Navy Staff Corps Officers. Administrators learn about the military structure of the U.S. Navy, its rich history of traditions and customs, leadership development and military etiquette.
Qualifications	 Master's degree with a major in health care, hospital, or health services administration (MHA). MHAs must be accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education (CAHME) Or a master's degree in business administration (MBA) with a concentration in Health Care Administration. MBAs must be accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) Or have a master's degree in public health accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH) in Public Health (Concentration in Administration) Residency completion and employment experience in Health Care Administration (PPO, HMO, Managed Care) GPA of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale Letters of recommendation from military or civilian personnel
Related Credentials Offered	Certified in Public Health (CPH)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience/ Education Requirement	Some of the degrees listed for these positions may assist the servicemember in being exempt from the 120-hour course, but the servicemember would still need to demonstrate proof of completing the required experience to be eligible to sit for the exams.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember must demonstrate proof of passing both the national and state examinations to satisfy requirement for licensure.