

AI Governance Begins

Governor Shapiro issues executive order creating the Generative AI Governing Board and launches a collaboration with Carnegie Mellon University (CMU).

AI Use Policy Introduced

Office of Administration issues initial generative AI employee use policies.

Sept. 2023

Governing Board Convenes

Commonwealth holds first meeting of the AI Governing Board.

Oct. 2023

Nation-Leading Pilot

Shapiro Administration and OpenAI launch a first-of-its-kind generative AI pilot with Commonwealth employees.

Jan. 2024

Pilot Launch Begins

First cohort of Commonwealth employees begins using ChatGPT Enterprise.

March 2024

Workforce AI Training

Office of Administration announces agreement with InnovateUS to expand AI training for Commonwealth employees.

Dec. 2024

Responsible AI Training Available

Office of Administration launches responsible AI training modules for the public sector from InnovateUS.

Feb. 2025

Results Released

Shapiro Administration publishes final report detailing outcomes and insights from ChatGPT pilot

Employee Voice in AI

Shapiro Administration announces establishment of Generative AI Labor and Management Collaboration Group to prioritize employee engagement in AI implementation.

March 2025

Building AI Culture

Office of Administration convenes first ever "AI Day" with CMU for IT and agency leaders to explore responsible adoption of AI.

May 2025