

9:00-9:30 AM

Registration & Light Breakfast

9:30-9:45 AM

Opening Keynote

Akbar Hossain

Secretary of Policy & Planning, Governor Josh Shapiro's Office

A brief welcome to frame the day's purpose and highlight the statewide commitment to advancing coordinated gun violence prevention work.

9:45-10:00 AM

Welcoming Remarks & Setting the Stage

Charla Plaines

Director, Office of Gun Violence Prevention (OGVP), PCCD

An overview of OGVP's current efforts and tools, including recent engagement, data resources, and statewide partnerships, that ground and inform the conversations ahead.

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Morning Workshop

WestEd Justice & Prevention Research Center (JPRC)

The Health Alliance for Violence Intervention (HAVI)

Local teams will work with state and national experts to discuss their local data trends, share what's working locally, and explore practical strategies for building stronger cross-sector partnerships.

12:00 - 12:30 PM

Lunch served in the Forest Room

12:30 - 1:00 PM

Investing in Safer Futures: Leveraging Public & Private Resources for Gun Violence Prevention Strategies

Lieutenant Governor Austin A. Davis

Rob Wilcox

President & CEO of Fund for a Safer Future

Learn how public and private investments—and strong partnerships—help sustain momentum, expand capacity, and drive long term violence prevention progress.

1:00 - 3:00 PM

Afternoon Workshop

WestEd Justice & Prevention Research Center (JPRC)

The Health Alliance for Violence Intervention (HAVI)

Selected county and city teams build on the morning's workshop to develop short-term, actionable plans using tailored data and hands-on guidance from WestEd and HAVI to strengthen local violence-prevention efforts.

3:00 PM

Closing Remarks

Charla Plaines

Director, Office of Gun Violence Prevention (OGVP), PCCD

A wrap-up highlighting key takeaways, shared commitments, and next steps to carry today's work forward.