Overview

Act 225 of 1982, as amended by Act 119 of 2008, charged the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture with enforcing the commonwealth's Dog Law.

The Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement ("BDLE"), under the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture ("Department"), enforces all Dog Law-related regulations, including licensing individual dogs, licensing and inspecting kennels, humanely capturing dogs found running at large and placing them in shelters, investigating dangerous dog incidents, enforcing safety measures for dogs deemed dangerous, investigating and prosecuting illegal kennel operations, and processing claims for livestock damage caused by dogs and coyotes.

As required by Section 906 of the Dog Law, this report to the General Assembly provides:

- Total payments made by the Department from the Dog Law Restricted Account and the reasons for such payments – Page 3
- Appendix A - BDLE regions and supervisors
- Appendix B - State dog wardens by county
- Appendix C - Dog licenses issued by county
- Appendix D - Kennel licenses issued in each class by county and license fees collected
- Appendix E - Out-of-state dealer licenses issued and license fees collected
- Appendix F and G - Kennel inspections performed by kennel class, including the number of dogs kept at each inspected kennel and the county of location
- Appendix H - Citations issued by county
- Appendix I - Dogs seized and impounded and reimbursements made by the department for the transportation, care, and feeding of such dogs
- Appendix J - Enforcement by independent political subdivisions

Dog Licenses

County treasurers and agents sell dog licenses to Pennsylvania residents. The current cost of an annual dog license is $6.50 for altered dogs, $8.50 for unaltered dogs and $31.50 for a lifetime license is for altered dogs and $51.50 for unaltered dogs. These fees are set in statute and have not been increased in over 25 years. Revenues from the sale of annual and lifetime licenses are directed to the Dog Law Restricted Account. In accordance with the Dog Law, Philadelphia County and the cities of Altoona, Erie, Harrisburg, Pittsburgh, and Scranton administer their own dog license sales, retain all income and information generated, and do not report dog licensing sales income to the Department (reference Appendix J for Section 1201 of the Dog Law, which addresses enforcement by independent political subdivisions). While this report does not include sales or revenue generated within those cities, it is important to note that the fees are significantly higher in these cities ranging from $6 to $40 for annual licenses and $30 to $175 for a lifetime or a 12-year license. Without a statewide BDLE, more counties or municipalities would have to charge significantly higher fees to provide these services at the local level. Legislation which includes a modest dog license fee increase is the only solution to ensure the Department can meet its statutory obligations and protect Pennsylvania's dogs.

There were 805,663 individual dog licenses sold in 2021, including 749,903 annual and 55,730 lifetime licenses, generating $5,527,048 in revenue (Appendix C).

The total number of dog licenses sold, decreased by .5 percent, but due to the higher number of lifetime dog licenses sold, dog license revenue increased slightly by 2.9 percent from calendar year 2020 in 2021. BDLE's current financial crisis and lack of adequate funding, which was further compounded by the COVID-19 pandemic, is directly related to license sales. Without staff available to canvass, follow-up on individuals who have not renewed their licenses, and having a strong presence in the community and at community events license sales will continue to drop or remain stagnant. Without a license fee increase to fill necessary vacancies it will be nearly impossible for BDLE to increase license sales.

Kennel Licenses

BDLE licensed 2,817 kennels in Pennsylvania in 2021, garnering $533,625 in license fees directed to BDLE's restricted account (Appendix D).

Kennel license revenue increased by 4.3 percent and the total number of kennels increased another 1% from calendar year 2020. The kennels (in-state) requiring inspections continue to increase annually, yet there has been no fee increase to help accommodate staffing and resource shortages. There are 682 in-state kennels or 24% of all kennels requiring an inspection, located in counties without a dedicated dog warden. Over the last eight years, the number of licensed in-state kennels has increased by 24%.

Out-of-State Dealers

In 2021, 132 out-of-state dealers were licensed, generating $15,250 in revenue for the restricted account (Appendix E).

Dog Law Inspections

A total of 5,943 kennel inspections were completed in 2021 (Appendix F). This is an increase of 1.4% compared to 2020.

BDLE conducted slightly more inspections in 2021 which was not a success for BDLE considering that the total number of licensed kennels in-state also increased slightly. Thirty-eight percent of all inspections conducted occurred in region 7, located in South East, PA. Over 1,000 of those inspections took place in Lancaster County and Montgomery County which currently do not have a dedicated dog warden. This is significant because dog wardens from other parts of the state were brought into these counties solely to inspect the kennels; taking them away from their ability to provide Dog Law services in the counties they are assigned to work. This is a direct result of not increasing dog licensing fees.

Enforcement Activities

BDLE refused and/or revoked seven kennel licenses/applications in 2021, an increase of 250% from calendar year 2020.

Forty-seven citations were issued for operating a kennel without a license in 2021, an increase of 34% from calendar year 2020.

In 2021, BDLE collected $17,500 through administrative actions (settlements and civil penalties) and $121,635 in Dangerous Dog registration fees.

Citation Issuance

In 2021, BDLE issued 2,295 summary citations and 93 misdemeanor complaints for kennel and other Dog Law violations, including, but not limited to, failure to license, dogs running at large or abandoned, and dangerous dogs (Appendix H).

Since FY 1998-99, 75% of the fines and penalties revenue BDLE collected has been diverted to the Judicial Computer System Fund. Of the approximately $320,000 collected in fines and penalties each fiscal year only $70,000 is retained in the Dog Law Fund.

In 2021, $205,539 or 75% of the total fines and penalties BDLE collected was transferred out of the Dog Law Restricted Account and deposited into the Judicial Computer System Account. Since 1998 a total of $5,039,734 has been transferred out of the Dog Law fund in accordance with Act 64. This annual reduction of fines and penalties revenue is a contributing factor to the fund's solvency issues. Increasing revenue generated through fines and penalties collected have no positive impact on the Dog Law Fund. At the end of 2021 the balance in the Judicial Computer System Fund was $10.6 million while the Dog Law Fund has a balance of only $599,065 and is now requiring support from the Department's General Fund. Filing more citations will not resolve BDLE's insolvency.

Citations issued increased by 8% compared to calendar year 2020. This increase was expected as dog wardens spent more time in the field as BDLE transitioned back to normal work schedules along with the public. However, this increase is not reflective of BDLE operating at full capacity. The number of citations filed should be much higher and when compared to 2019 (pre-pandemic) citation numbers, there is actually a 16% decrease. This is directly attributed to BDLE's insufficient funding.

Dogs Seized and Impounded and Total Reimbursements

BDLE plays a critical role in managing stray dogs by assisting with the humane capture and transport of dogs to shelters. Shelters and municipalities receive payments to help cover the costs associated with transporting, feeding, and caring for stray dogs. BDLE paid $5,995 for 1,199 dogs statewide (Appendix I). Since January 1, 2021, the reimbursement rate per dog has been the minimum $5 as regulation requires. This is due to BDLE's insufficient funds.

Dog Law Restricted Account – Revenue and Expenditures for Calendar Year 2021

A restricted account funds all activities of BDLE. All revenue and expenses related to BDLE are credited and disbursed from the Dog Law Restricted Account, as Section 1001 of the Dog Law requires.

Beginning Balance 1/1/2021	$265,709
Revenue Collected:	$6,447,260

Administrative Overhead:	$1,274,000
Operating Expenses (including Holding and Disposing Payments):	$1,419,019

Domestic Animal Damage Claims:	$9,522
Purchase of Fixed Assets:	$0
GGO Support	($1,774,000)
Total Costs:	$5,908,364
Ending Balance as of 12/31/21	$599,065

Act 64 – Transfer to Judicial Computer System Account:*

In 2021, $205,539 or 75% of the total fines and penalties BDLE collected was transferred out of the Dog Law Restricted Account and into the Judicial Computer System Account. Since 1998 a total of $5,039,734 has been transferred out of the Dog Law fund in accordance with Act 64. This annual reduction of fines and penalties revenue is a contributing factor to the fund’s solvency issues.

GGO Support:*

To prevent the Dog Law Restricted Fund from going negative in 2021 $1,274,000 in Administrative Overhead expenses were transferred out and changed to the Department’s GGO waiver funding. In addition, GGO support listed above includes a temporary transfer of $500,000 in personnel expenses to the Department’s current year GGO. This transfer will be reversed during 2022 once the Dog Law Restricted Fund’s cash balance is sufficient to support the expenses. Personnel costs reported above are actuals and do not reflect the temporary transfer.

Licensing Fees

The primary source of revenue for the Dog Law Restricted Account is the sale of individual dog licenses. This is supplemented by kennel licenses and fines that are capped at approximately $70,000 annually. Individual dog license sales generated approximately $5,527,048 in 2021.

Looming Concerns

Pennsylvania dog license fees have been the exact same cost since 1996.

MEANWHILE...

postage increased 81%
1997: $0.32 NOW: $0.58

load of bread increased 114%
1997: $1.17 NOW: $2.50

gallon of milk increased 182%
1997: $1.23 NOW: $3.50

gallon of gas increased 194%
1997: $1.97 NOW: $3.50

The focus of BDLE in 2021 was to restore the solvency of the Dog Law Restricted Account. Unfortunately, without the passage of critical legislation to minimally increase dog license fees and lower the age for licensing dogs which would increase licensing compliance, BDLE struggled to meet bare minimum statutory requirements.

Since its enactment in 1893, the enforcement of the Dog Law has been funded through the sale of dog licenses. Dog licensing was created to hold individual dog owners responsible for damages when their dogs got loose and attacked farmers' livestock. The revenue raised from dog license dollars also provided reimbursement to farmers whose livestock was attacked by coyotes.

As a direct result of the inaction to minimally raise the dog license fee, BDLE is now reliant upon general taxpayer dollars.

BDLE now relies on a transfer of taxpayer dollars in order to maintain the current level of statutory obligations. Even with taxpayer dollars, BDLE cannot fill critical vacancies, such as Lancaster or Montgomery counties, it only allows BDLE to continue operating at status quo.

From Lancaster to Philadelphia, there are an estimated 1.1 million dogs. With over 1,000 licensed kennels that need inspected a minimum of twice annually, Region 7 has the heaviest workload for dog wardens in the commonwealth.

Lancaster County alone has more than double the number of licensed kennels than any other county in the state. The region has more than 160 dangerous dogs to monitor. And, just last year in 2021, there were more than 600 dog-related incidents to respond to from the public; a 14% decrease over 2020. This shows BDLE's heavier reliance on local and state police to respond to public complaints and puts public health and safety at greater risk. But as a result of the funding shortfall, both Lancaster and Montgomery County are without a dedicated dog warden.

The lack of sufficient funding for BDLE affects anyone in these counties who loses their dog, gets attacked by a vicious dangerous dog, or just wants the dogs living in the 1,000 breeding operations here to be well cared for.

Status quo is not enough. So much has changed and evolved since 1893 and the Dog Law is no exception. There are more residents and more dogs. With the increase in population and number of dog owners comes an increase in dog-related incidents and more kennels to fill supply and demand.

The COVID-19 pandemic has shown that people rely on dogs for companionship. While many industries were negatively impacted, the dog breeding and adoption industries created an even larger supply shortage.

While the dog license fee has remained the same for 24 years, BDLE's operational costs continue to climb and have led to today's current deficit. Since 1996, personnel costs have nearly doubled, with an increase of 88%, despite reduced staffing levels and not filling mission critical vacancies. Operating costs have more than doubled, increasing 172%. There is a clear discrepancy regarding BDLE's primary revenue stream (dog licenses) and the increased costs associated with fulfilling BDLE's statutory requirements.

Since 1996, priorities for BDLE have changed. With licensed kennels increasing 20% and some of the strictest kennel standards in the nation as of 2008, BDLE spends more time and resources to keep Pennsylvania's nearly 3,000 breeding operations up to par for the dogs who spend their lives there. Since 1996, the total number of kennel inspections has increased 85%.

While BDLE is clearly doing more with less, it is only a matter of time until the good work of the past years slips away. Pennsylvania will reclaim its title as Puppy Mill Capitol of the East, there will be more outbreaks of infectious and contagious diseases for both dogs and people, and more people will become victims of a dangerous dog attack due to lack of monitoring.

Grim Outlook

Without a fee increase, taxpayer support will continue to be necessary to allow for BDLE to continue protecting the safety and welfare of dogs in the commonwealth, as well as human health as it relates to dog attacks and containing infectious and contagious diseases. The loss of BDLE and the services provided is the most immediate threat to the welfare of dogs in Pennsylvania.

Who is impacted by the insufficient funding of BDLE?

Local Government & Law Enforcement: Counties or municipalities will face an impossible decision: raise revenue to cover these vital services, which will likely cost more to the taxpayer to administer duplicative programs than a statewide program, or even worse, to not provide the services at all.

The burden of stray dogs, increased cruelty referrals, more frequent infectious and contagious disease outbreaks, and increased dog bite incidents will unfairly fall on law enforcement, continually asked to do more with less.

Dogs Living in Breeding Operations: As the only agency in the state that can inspect state licensed kennels without a search warrant, BDLE has a vital responsibility and duty to ensure the safety and welfare of dogs in kennels.

Often, when you hear about dogs being seized from a kennel it was due to a dog warden making a cruelty referral to a humane society police officer or police officer after a routine inspection or investigating a complaint.

Kennel inspections provide an opportunity for wardens to ensure proper living conditions and check on the overall well-being of the dogs that live there. All wardens receive humane society police officer training in order to arm them with the knowledge they need to make quality cruelty referrals when necessary.

Dog wardens ensure kennel owners are held accountable for maintaining adequate living conditions for the dogs and puppies and strive to ensure Pennsylvania's dog breeding industry maintains high standards of care and continue to improve the image of the dog breeding industry.

- As a small business, kennel operators rely on quality inspections and reports to show consumers their kennel is a good place to buy a puppy or adopt a dog.
- When you read the headlines in the news about dogs being seized for poor health and horrific living conditions, oftentimes, it is from an illegal kennel operation.
- Illegal kennels or underground kennel operations are not regulated. These are the places most notoriously known as “puppy mills” where sickly dogs are bred and sold unbeknownst to the public.

Pennsylvanians at Large: From tracking and monitoring all of the dangerous dogs in the state, to investigating dog bites to bring justice to victims, and ensuring new puppy owners do not experience the heartache of a sudden death or lifelong health problems related to improper breeding or veterinary care of the dog, Pennsylvania’s dog wardens work every day to protect Pennsylvanians and their furry best friends.

Strays – Dog wardens pick up and transport stray dogs to shelters. Shelters receive money from BDLE for taking in and holding stray dogs. Prior to 2021, shelters were eligible to be reimbursed $40 for holding a stray dog that BDLE placed. Now, due to insufficient funds, this reimbursement has been lowered from $40 to $5, the minimum that regulation requires.

Dangerous Dogs – BDLE is solely responsible for the maintenance of a statewide dangerous dog registry. Any dog that attacks a person or domestic animal and is deemed dangerous in court requires follow-up and registration for the remainder of the dog’s life. This is one of the most important duties of BDLE as it relates to public safety for everyone who resides in the commonwealth or travels through the state.

Although police can handle an initial dangerous dog case, it is the dog warden who follows-up with registration, subsequent twice annual inspections, and updates to the data in the registry viewable by the public.

For years the Department of Agriculture has been asking for BDLE to be sufficiently funded to continue its vital work noted throughout this report. The failure to heed warnings has and will continue to have significant consequences for the safety of our communities and animal welfare in Pennsylvania.

Appendix J – Section 1201 of the Dog Law
Addressing Enforcement by Independent Political Subdivisions

ARTICLE XII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1201. Applicability to cities of the first class, second class, second class A and third class.

(a) Cities of the first class, second class and second class

A.— Insofar as this act provides for the individual licensing of dogs and the payment of damages for domestic animals injured by dogs or for licensed dogs illegally killed, it shall not apply to cities of the first class, second class and second class A. Such individual dog licensing and payment of damages in cities of the first class, second class and second class A shall continue to be carried on under the provisions of existing laws.

(b) Cities of the third class — Insofar as this act provides for the individual licensing of dogs by the department, the payment of damages by the department for domestic animals injured by dogs or for licensed dogs illegally killed and for the performance of duties and functions of dog law enforcement by the department under Articles I and II, except sections 206, 207, 209, 211 and 218 as it pertains to kennel inspections; Article III, except section 301; Articles V through IX; this article; Articles XI and XII, the foregoing responsibilities shall not apply to the department within a city of the third class that does both of the following:

(1) Adopts its own dog licensing ordinance establishing individual dog licensure on a calendar year basis or on another basis consistent with that in use by the department.

(2) Notifies the secretary, in writing, of its intention to assume responsibility for enforcement of its dog licensing ordinance under authority of this section for a period commencing January 1 of a particular year, and not ending prior to December 31 of the year in which the city of the third class terminates its responsibility for enforcement. If the department changes dog licensure from calendar year basis to some other basis by regulation promulgated under authority of section 201, it may modify the requirement set forth in this paragraph to provide for the efficient and equitable transfer of dog law enforcement responsibility and appropriate dog license fees from the city of the third class to the department.
