

I-78 Reconstruction and Widening Project

Why is a new Route 100 Interchange needed?

- The interchange experiences heavy traffic, especially during peak travel times
- Current ramp and roadway layouts create congestion and merging conflicts
- Traffic volumes are expected to increase due to continued residential, commercial, and industrial development in the area
- Updating the interchange will improve safety and traffic flow for drivers entering and exiting I-78

