GIFT AGREEMENT

- I. The Donation. _____ (individually or collectively, “the Donor”), irrevocably and unconditionally transfers all their rights in and title to the copyrightable works and/or property described in Section II below to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (“Commonwealth”), in the care of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission (“PHMC”). The Donor also conveys to the Commonwealth the nonexclusive license in Section III below. The donor affirms that they own the works and/or property, and to the best of the Donors’ knowledge, they have good and complete right and title to give both ownership and the below licenses to the Commonwealth.
- II. The Gift Description.
- III. The License. Insofar as they are able, the Donor gives to the Commonwealth permission to copy and use the works and/or property described Section II for all standard museum and archival purposes including, but not limited to, archiving, exhibition, outgoing loan, private and public display and/or performance, publicity, scholarship, reproduction in different medium to facilitate public access, and educational endeavors.
- IV. Integration. This represents the entire Agreement between the Donor and the Commonwealth. No negotiations or representations between the parties shall be permitted to contradict or modify any of this Agreement’s terms.
