

pennsylvania

STATE POLICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 24, 2026

Owner of Dealership Charged After Fraudulent Car Sales

Harrisburg, PA- Khaled Yaye, 49, of Harrisburg, has been charged with multiple criminal and regulatory offenses arising from a Pennsylvania State Police investigation into fraudulent vehicle sales practices. Yaye is owner and operator of Yeni Auto Sales located at 1682 South Cameron Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The charges include:

- Forgery
- Tampering with Records
- Deceptive or Fraudulent Business Practices
- Altered, Forged, or Counterfeit Documents and Plates

Additionally, Yaye faces over 130 violations of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code related to the improper handling, reassignment, and processing of vehicle titles at his dealership, as well as charges under the Pennsylvania Board of Vehicles Act for substantial misrepresentation of material facts in a vehicle sale, unprofessional conduct, and willful failure to display his dealership license.

The investigation was conducted by members of the Pennsylvania State Police Troop H- Vehicle Fraud Investigations Unit in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Department of State.

Charges through District Court 12-2-02, (717) 939-6996.

###

MEDIA CONTACT: Tpr. Megan Frazer, megfrazer@pa.gov.

In the interest of transparency, it is the policy of PSP to disseminate information regarding incidents which are likely to generate significant interest among the public and media in a timely manner. While we make every effort to ensure the information is accurate to the best of our knowledge and belief, incidents are often fluid and rapidly evolving. Information provided should be considered preliminary and subject to change as additional investigative details emerge.

###

A handwritten signature in black ink, enclosed within a hand-drawn oval.